

A Joint Event with the Carolina Recycling Association's 26th Annual Conference
& Trade Show

This two-day, peer-sharing conference will address a variety of zero waste-to-landfill programs, issues and challenges facing manufacturers and businesses in North Carolina, South Carolina and across the region.

March 22 & 23, 2016

Wilmington Convention Center, Wilmington, NC

Come, learn and participate!

Hear from peer manufacturers about practical approaches to launching, running and improving: zero waste-to-landfill programs; vendor networking; resources; waste-to-energy initiatives; source reductions; and addressing those one-time problematic wastes.

Who should attend this conference?

It's for any manufacturer or business pursuing zero waste-to-landfill initiatives or seeking to improve waste reduction practices.

What is the Zero Waste Flea Market?

Participate in the Zero Waste Flea Market – a reverse trade show session where recycling vendors come to you!

Bonus
Pre-Conference Workshop!

Conference participants are invited to attend the Zero Waste-to-Landfill 101 Workshop at no extra charge. Attendees will learn the basics of launching and running a zero waste-to-landfill program at their facilities in an interactive and training-paced environment.

You may register for both the Zero Waste Conference and the CRA Conference by selecting the CRA Member or Non-Member rates. To register, please visit www.cra-recycle.org/2016zw/attend/.

If you have any other questions, please contact Terry Albrecht, N.C. Department of Environmental Quality, at (828) 251-7475 or Terry.Albrecht@ncdenr.gov.

Conference Venue & Hotel Information

CRA is pleased to partner with The Wilmington Convention Center (WCC) for our 2016 Conference. The LEED Silver-certified structure was specifically designed to protect the riverfront ecosystem and minimize the environmental impact while also rehabilitating a former industrial site. It's design is reminiscent of Wilmington as an old "Port City." The WCC building site is on the north edge of the city urban core and adjacent to the Cape Fear River.

CRA has partnered with three local hotels to offer conference attendees superior accommodations in a unique setting. Visit www.cra-recycle.org/2016zw/ for information about each hotel and the rates available.

The group rate is only available through February 29, 2016.
